

Curtain Call

Curtain Call is a summer theater program designed to give students the creative space to explore and develop artistic skills. Each student is challenged by a program schedule specifically designed to develop maximum individual growth. The small group format provides flexibility in skill, and artistic instruction from experienced teachers and guest artists.

Open to all North Rose-Wolcott students in Grades 3-11

Performing Arts Summer Camp at Lyons

Program runs July 2-25 with final culminating performances in Lyons

The first 20 students from NRW can attend for free. This is regularly $310/per student to attend.
